LOGISTICS - COMMUNICATION SOLUTIONS

Let Danimex assist in which radio solution is suitable for your needs. We have many years of experience in supplying solutions to logistics and the knowledge from enhancing our own warehouse efficiency.

Getting from one point to another can be effectively implemented by having a reliable radio solution.

Vital communication

Within transportation tight schedules must be kept and instant communication between the train driver and the control center is daily tasks. The delivery is of importance and two-way communication is vital in this process.

Security of stock, staff and passengers is important in this field.
